Queen Esther.

Those who will attend the presentation of the cantata, "Queen Esther," at the opera house next Monday evening, may prepare themselves for a treat. The entertainment is given by local talent under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Peter's Episcopal church, and the cast is composed of some of the best talent Columbia affords.

The scenery and costuming will be beautiful, and the singing and acting will be well done; big and little, there will be nearly one hundred people on the stage. The performers have all been very busy the past week with rehearsals.

ADDITIONAL ENTRIES.

The Flower Parade is Assuming Large Proportions.

The flower parade is assuming larger proportions than even the most enthusiastic had hoped for. New entries are being made daily, and "out of town" people are beginning to take quite an interest in the occasion. Among these may be mentioned a trap from Culleoka which will be adorned with scarlet poppies and occupy 1 by 4 lovely women.

In addition to entries mentioned in former issues are the following:

Misses Janie Elam and Mary Lamb will drive in a trap decorated in yellow tulips.

Mrs. Robt. L. Granbery will enter a two horse drag.

Mrs. George Nichols will ride in her survey, which will be decorated in white peonies. With her will be her children, and her out-riders will be Misses Annie and Mattie May Terrill, Cora McKay and Sallie Tate, and Messrs. John Jamison, Walter Burnett, Polk Beal and Will Terrill.

The Columbia Steam Laundry will be represented by a trap with decorations of natural calla-lilies.

Watson Bros. have also entered a delivery wagon.

Mrs. Seaver will drive in a survey decorated in sweet peas. With her will be Mrs. H. J. Halle of Chicago, Miss Beatrice Korwick of Nashville, and Miss Ellen Friel.

The following entries have been received for the bicycle department: Masters Tom Mitchell, Norman Martin, Bennett Nichols, Sammie Sands. Other entries are expected.

The Cumberland Telephone Company will have a float in the parade, made in the shape of a huge bell.

Little Miss Florence Shelton will drive a pony cart tandem. The decorations will be of white and yellow chrysanthemums.

Little Misses Della Louise Cherry and Beulah Randolph will ride in a pony cart decorated in white poppies and white chrysanthemums. Their out-riders will be, Masters Algie Cherry and Clifford Foxall.

The out-riders for Mesdames McLemore and Towler will be Messrs. T. N. Figuers, Jr., and Guy McLemore.

Columbia Lodge of Odd Fellows will have a float, decorated in the colors of the lodge, white, blue and red.

Miss Mamie Hodge will have with her in her trap Misses Mary Frierson, Lillie Watkins and Florence Napier. Their out-riders will be Messrs. Charles Wright, George M. Hodge, Joe Lee and Spence McFall.

The following young ladies will ride in the Morning Glory float: Misses Hallie Fry, Inez Kelley, Nell Davis, Elenora Jones, Julia Biddle, Mary Barrow, Jane Wilson, Mary Stevens and Lucia Frierson. This out-riders will be, Masters Brown Taylor, Cecil Ewing, Robert Pillow and Hiram Titcomb.

Mrs. E. H. Hatcher's phaeton will be decorated in purple wisteria, and she will have with her Mrs. C. A. Forgy.

Miss Vashti Ballantyne of Culleoka, and Miss Kate Thomas, of Glendale, will occupy a trap decorated in red and white and Messrs Richard Wilkes, Clem Thomas, Smith Thomas and Rufus Jackson will be their out-riders.

Mr. A. B. Rains' survey will be decorated in lemon hydrangeas, and will be occupied by Misses Mary Rains, Mary Brown, Daisy Towler and Fay Scott.

The pony cart of Misses Louise Chaffin and Louise Brown will be profusely decorated in white morning glories.

The out-riders for Mrs. W. P. Morgan's trap, which will be driven tandem, are John Gant, Will Morgan, Howard Ewing and Curran Whitthorne. Will Webster will drive.

Mrs. E. I. Joyce will be accompanied in her phaeton by Mrs. Joseph T. Meadors, while Messrs E. I. Joyce, Charles and Fred Gamble and Dr. J. T. Meadors will act as out-riders. The decoration will be of white and pink hydrangeas.

Invitations have been extended to Gov. McMillin and his staff and escorts, and Mayor Head of Nashville, and their families, but no responses have yet been received.

Messrs. McKennon & Nichols have added a handsome brass center stand and vase, purchased from James Bros., to the list of prizes. This will be given to a sweepstakes premium, and the winner, if so desired, may exchange it for anything else of equal value in James Bros. store.

Where the Classes Will Form.

The various classes will form by divisions as follows:

Class 1—Composed of single horse rigs will form on Embargo and Sixth streets, east of North Main.

Class 2—Composed of double horse rigs will form on Fifth and North Main.

Class 3—Composed of pony rigs, double and single, will form on North Main, between Sixth and public square.

Class 4—Miscellaneous, composed of Tandem rigs, Tally-ho or Breaks, Landaus, Floats, Farm and Delivery Wagons, will form on Garden street, north of Sixth street.

The line of march will be headed by detachment of mounted police, who will be followed by Chief of Police J. W. Jackson and Capt. J. H. Gartner, of the fire department, in a trap.

The Chief Marshal, Mr. W. P. Woldridge, and his aids, will follow, and the military band will precede the decorated vehicles.

The Line of March.

The line of march will be up Sixth to Garden, down Garden to Eighth, on Eighth to South Main, from South Main to and around the Square, then up West Seventh street, out the Mt. Pleasant pike to the Arsenal gate. The procession will then pass through the Arsenal grounds, where the vehicles will be judged. The judges, whose names will not be disclosed until that day, and who have been selected by a committee of gentlemen, will stand on the east side of the Storage Building, where each division will be inspected. The parade will then pass out the Hampshire pike and return to the city.

Announcement of the prize winners will be made from the gentlemen's entrance to the Bethel House, and the prizes delivered there.
